Manually harvested grapes into 12kg boxes and carefully selected at the choosing table. Fermentation occurred at the mill at a controlled temperature with many presses throughout the process. 18 month staging in new french oak barrels.

Tasting Notes

The 2019 edition of Aragonez da Malhadinha - vinha da Peceguina presents a deep garnet colour with violet hues. The nose reveals exuberant notes of ripe red fruits, milk chocolate, liquorice and quality barrel. On the mouth it is fresh, but with good structure, the fruit comes together with the barrel notes resulting in a wine with ripe tannins and a spiced long finish.
