A SENSE OF BEAUTIFUL ISOLATION

HERDADE DA MALHADINHA NOVA, Beja, Portugal

VINES AND OLIVE TREES AS FAR AS THE EYE CAN SEE. Plenty of horses too, because the family that owns this hotel also runs a thoroughbred breeding program. At Herdade da Malhadinha Nova, this 1,100-acre/450-hectare farm exudes the fine art of living on the land, mixed with a contemporary approach to rural life. Designed to blend into the surrounding nature, the property combines a sense of space and elegance with exceptional service. Guests can taste wine produced on the estate, while vinotherapy also features at the spa. The setting sun offers a sensational tableau for restaurant guests as it reflects in the swimming pool.
